Dear Garrison:

I write you, in very great haste, to tell you that Chandler Dartington and his good wife Hannah, with two Chester County anti-slavery girls, Sidney Peirce and Alice Jackson, are here on their way to the White Mountains, and that they expect to go ^{to} Boston ~~to~~ tomorrow (Saturday) night, via Fall River. They will stop at the Adams House. I hope you will be at home, for I know you ^{will} delight in an opportunity to show them some attentions. They want to hear Parker on Sunday, and they will probably be off for the mountains on Monday.

Yours, lovingly,

O. Johnson.
